

COMPUTER EDUCATION
UNIT

Teaching Notes

for

Winnie-the-Pooh

in the Hundred Acre Wood

CC
371.334
TEA

Department of Education

CEU 040

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This document combines the ideas of several people including:

The students of Merimbula Primary School
Paul Brown (South Coast Region)
Tina Harrison (Computer Education Unit).

Edited by Tina Harrison.

Illustrations used in this document appear with the permission of:
Ozi-Soft (importers of Winnie-the-Pooh in the Hundred Acre Wood)
33/8-24 Kippax St
Surry Hills NSW 2010 and

Belair Publications (publishers of Resource Drawings by L Stewart)
Box 17 PO
Kotara Fair NSW 2289

COPYRIGHT DETAILS

The software referred to in this publication is fully covered by the Copyright Law. Unauthorised copying is not permitted. All teachers and educators should respect the copyright laws to ensure the continued development of quality software.

Teachers and educators may reproduce any part of this document for classroom or private use provided the source is acknowledged, but the document may not be reproduced in part or in full for monetary gain.

This document has been produced with the authority of the Director, Services. Any comments or suggestions on the material in this publication should be addressed to:

Chief Education Officer
Computer Education Unit
NSW Department of Education
P.O. Box 16
ERSKINEVILLE NSW 2043
AUSTRALIA